TSU fights Bears to tie

Griffin Pritchard
Staff Writer

The Troy State University Lady Bears to a 5-5 tie Saturday at TSU.

Sophomore Kim Hickman scored the game-tying goal on a breakaway with less than five minutes left in regulation.

After remaining deadlocked during the two 15 minute overtime periods, the referees decided to end play due to torrential rain which saturated the field.

Both teams combined to score six goals in the last 26 minutes of play.

With the game tied at one in the first half of play, Hickman took a feed from sophomore Maite Goicoechea and blasted the ball past Bear goalkeeper Karolina Revay in the 33rd minute, giving the Trojans a 2-1 lead.

After Mercer tied the game at two, freshman Andi Tickles scored the go ahead goal at the 61:00 mark, giving the Lady Trojans a 3-2 lead.

Mercer took control, scoring three goals in a 15 minute span.

Tickles put one in the bottom left of the net on a penalty kick with just nine minutes left to put the Trojans down by one.

"After we fell behind, I kept telling them that it was not over, to stay focused and to play until the end," said Qasim Sheikh, TSU head soccer coach. "I'm just so proud of the girls for the effort and will to win."

The Trojans (3-8-1, 0-2-1) will be back in action today against Georgia State in the second game of their three game home-stand.

Game time is set for 4 p.m.
